Memorial Day

AS A COMBAT VETERAN OF THE IRAQ WAR and having lost two friends in battle, Memorial Day holds a special place for me. While a flag half mast and a moment of silence is fitting and respectful, it is but ceremony and not how we honor the fallen. We honor their sacrifice in our deeds and actions. Jesus said "Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends." It is with this kind of love a soldier, sailor, marine, or airman offers their life for us. So to honor their sacrifice we must show that same kind of love to each other in how we live everyday of every year. Help someone in need if you can, say hello to random strangers, pray for your enemies, forgive one another, etc. Make the world a little better every day in how you treat others.

Our leaders, from the smallest village up to the federal government, have slowly turned our land into a land of soft despotism. Do not look for help from them, it is not in their best interest. Rather look to the Lord and at each other for kindness, compassion, mercy, and justice.

Those small random acts of kindness and love to each other are more powerful than any government body and can be life changing in effects. So this Memorial Day, take a moment and say a prayer for the families of the fallen and drive on, let your love for your neighbors aspire to be like the love of Jesus and the love that our fallen military men and women showed us as they gave their lives to defend our freedom, defend the oppressed, and stop the spread of evil around the world. God bless our military, God bless the United States, and may God bless you.

Have a happy and safe summer season.

As we observe Memorial Day, we pause to honor the brave men and women who gave their lives in service to our country. Their sacrifice secured the freedoms we enjoy today, and their courage will never be forgotten. We extend our gratitude to all who have served and to the families who have carried the weight of that sacrifice.

In remembrance of the holiday, First National Bank of Groton will be closed Saturday, May 23 and Monday, May 25. We wish our community a safe and meaningful Memorial Day weekend.
