Ready to advance in your current field or explore a new direction? Explore our degrees and certificates that are designed for today's workforce and discover how returning to college can transform your professional future.

VETERANS DAY

HONORING ALL WHO SERVED

AS A VETERAN OWNED AND OPERATED FUNERAL SERVICE, I WANT TO TAKE THIS MOMENT TO THANK ALL OUR VETERANS AND THEIR FAMILIES FOR THE SACRIFICES THEY MADE WHILE IN SERVICE TO OUR GREAT COUNTRY.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank the men and women from VFW Post 7127 in Moravia, American Legion Carrington-Fuller Post 800 in Groton, and all the other local veteran organizations that answer the call every time a family requests funeral honors be bestowed on their loved one. They never fail to answer that call and brave cold, heat, rain, and sometimes snow to ensure a veteran that has passed on is given a proper military farewell.

Unlike our brothers and sisters we honor on Memorial Day, a veteran is someone who lived through their service. Most return to civilian life and positively impact their communities with their selfless service, integrity, and humility. Many however, return broken, whether mentally or physically, and often times both. Although great strides have been made, we still lose about 18 veterans a day to suicide, twice the number of our non-veteran civilian counterparts. And a veteran is twice as likely to end up homeless as a non-veteran. These are the veterans we need to help today and everyday, to pray for today and everyday. VA programs and veteran charities are helpful and wonderful and I highly recommend you find one to support, but there is nothing greater than prayer...and the One who hears those prayers. Here is a prayer to help you.

"Most gracious and loving Father, I thank you for those people we call veterans. I ask that you bless them and keep them. I lift up to you in prayer all those veterans who are bound by chains of addiction, mental illness, physical brokenness, and homelessness. Break those chains as only you can do. Help them to remember they are loved and cherished. Make a way for them to come to know you and your peace and joy that endures even through the darkest times in this life, as we keep our eyes fixed on you and your promise of eternity spent in the presence of your love and light. I ask these things in name of your son, our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen."

At Central New York Cremation Service we will continue to abide by our mission statement from James 1:27 "Care for the widows and orphans in their distress, and do not be corrupted by the world". We will continue to provide the highest level of love, care, and compassion for all people at just a fraction of the cost of "traditional" funeral homes. I could raise my price a thousand dollars and still be less expensive than all other funeral homes, but I won't do that because I am not about the money, I am about helping people through a difficult time. May God bless you all as the holiday season approaches. -Art
