Memorial Day

AS A COMBAT VETERAN OF THE IRAQ WAR and having lost two friends in battle, Memorial Day holds a special place for me. While a flag half mast and a moment of silence is fitting and respectful, it is but ceremony and not how we honor the fallen. We honor their sacrifice in our deeds and actions. Christ said “Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.” It is with this kind of love a soldier, sailor, marine, or airman offers their life for us. So to honor their sacrifice we must show that same kind of love to each other in how we live everyday of every year. Hold the door for someone, do not ignore the homeless person on the corner, say hello to random strangers, etc. Politicians and legislation do not make our world better, they are but a necessary evil, small random acts of kindness to each other are more powerful than any legislation and can be life changing in effects. So this Memorial Day, take a moment and say a prayer for the families of the fallen and drive on, let your love for your neighbors aspire to be like the love of Christ and the love that our fallen military men and women showed us as they gave their lives to defend our freedom and stop the spread of evil around the world. God bless them, God bless the United States, and may God bless you. Have a happy and safe summer season. —ART

We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge a milestone in our paper's history... The Shopper turns 76 in 2025.

In recognition of the fact that only a small percentage of businesses ever reach this mark, we are indeed humbled by the continuous support of the businesses, groups, organizations and communities that have sustained us these past 76 years.

We want to thank everyone who has advertised in our paper in the past, and offer special thanks to our readers for allowing us to be a small part of their lives and welcoming us into their homes.
